Nostrification

Please, consider that according to the Polish Educational Ministry Regulations some foreign students have to receive a Recognition of High School Diploma from the Polish Ministry of Education by the end of the first academic semester. Our University helps students to complete the process (including sending a set of documents on your behalf). However, this is your obligation to deliver all the required documents to our office by the end of December 2022:

- original HS diploma apostilled or legalized and transcript of grades for the senior years (last 3-4 years in High School depending on the country);
- original Sworn translation of HS diploma and transcript of grades into Polish language including the translation of apostille or legalization stamps;
- original Eligibility Statement from the Ministry of Education;
- original Sworn translation of Eligibility statement into Polish;
- copy of passport and valid visa.

Please, be kindly informed that failure to deliver the Recognition of your HSD may result in crossing you out from the list of students. In order to check if Nostrification is needed in your case - please, contact Foreign Admissions Department at recruitment@lazarski.edu.pl.
